HEALTHY WINE FOCUS & UNDER THE INFLUENCE

We talk low-calorie, low-sulphur and low-alcohol

Spring is upon us, and many of us find ourselves striving to get in shape for those warmer days by our side to be ever fit, and for some, ever thinner, we restrict our intake and start researching the benefits of cider vinegar and raw food. We forgo pasta and red wine for something that resembles wood bark and tastes like a compost heap and our new best friends wear leotards and sweat bands. To me, it's exhausting. When did leading a healthy lifestyle become such a drag?

This month, we're here to take the work out of your work-out by offering insight into the health benefits of wine as well as wineries doing their bit for your wellbeing.

WINE.CO.ZA PUTS THE SPOTLIGHT ON

sisters doing it for themselves

I find this month's women in wine theme truly inspiring - women that stand out and love what they do. Women who are courageous in their fields. We interviewed ten ladies who are all well established in the industry with their love for wine and soil being nurtured from a young age. The farms we are highlighting are: Dorner, Amant, Rudera, Uthys, Graham Beck, Fleur du Cap and Zonseldorp. Please view our videos and enjoy being inspired this month!

Tell me more, regards Sheryl

Dorner Donatus White 2010

With its brilliant yellow tinge, the wine offers a full array of flavours from peach, white pear and orange zest with nuances of honeysuckle and roasted nuts. The palate is rich and abundant in primary and secondary flavours along with a luscious texture and mid palate weight. Elements of minerality combine with the harmonious acidity leaving one with a lasting fresh aftertaste. R 141 /bottle (R 846 /6 bottle case)

Amant Jordan Myers 2009

Distinctive ripe cherries and black fruit expression fused with lavender on second nose. The palate entrance is full, smooth and fresh. Good concentration of ripe fruit and ends with a sweetish appeal. Good balance of fruit, alcohol, wood usage and acidity. The ripe tannin structure together with the liquoric element complements the ripe fruit sweetness on the aftertaste. R 205 /bottle (R 1228 /6 bottle case)

Rudera Syrah 2010

Rich, darkly delicious "wild horse" of a wine, bursting with a nose of cassia, black berries and ripe red cherries, elegantly integrated with hints of "smoky bacon" and "new leather" aromas. Bold and full-bodied on the palate, with a lingering creamy mouth finish, classically encapsulated by maturation in all-new French Oak barrels. R 140 /bottle (R 840 /6 bottle case)

Graham Beck Coffeestone Cabernet 2009

Cedarwood and cigarbox flavours combined with rich dark berry fruit on the nose. Cassia, nutmeg and spices on the palate. A full bodied, firmly structured wine with concentrated fruit, a balanced mouth-feel and a fresh after-palate typical to the Fynbos terroir from which the grapes derive. R 193 /bottle (R 1157 /6 bottle case)

Fleur du Cap Unfiltered Merlot 2009

This elegant wine is deep ruby in colour with a bright hue. It has concentrated strawberry and red berry fruit with hints of white chocolate on the nose complemented by subtle mint nuances and spicy oak notes. These complex aromas follow onto the palate where they meld with Christmas cake and cedar oak flavours. R 123 /bottle (R 735 /6 bottle case)
